

I AM A CHILD OF DIVORCE

ONLINE TEEN SUPPORT GROUP

At I Am A Child of Divorce (<http://iamachildofdivorce.com>), we are pleased to announce the launch of our online support groups for teens whose parents are separated or divorced. The purpose of these free groups, which are conducted entirely online, is to help teens process the divorce of their parents and move from hurt to healing and hope for the future. Each group lasts 16 weeks and covers topics including handling emotions like anger, sadness, guilt and others; dealing with your parents; relieving stress; things you probably hate about divorce; avoiding destructive behaviors; money; moving on; god and faith and the rest of your life.
